LETTER OF MR. THWING

come you back from your trip to Kona, and to know that the change has been of much benefit to you. You have had lots of hard work. Your important position is a difficult one, and I want to say that we appreciate these difficulties, and the good work you, and your able chief Mr. Taylor, have done in representing crime, gambling and graft. We stand by you in the last election, we wish to stand by you now, and hope we may back you when another election comes. You have made a definite stand for good government and law, and that is what we believe in.

I presented a letter, or request, to you yesterday, signed by a number of residents of Honolulu, asking for the enforcement of certain important laws. I wish to explain my position a little more clearly, as this is not simply "Thwing's agitation," as someone has remarked. This request represents the conviction and honest opinion of an important part of this community. You may say quite rightly, "Why did you not ask me before?" We do not blame you for a lack of action in this matter, up until the present time. We ourselves had not fully considered it, or informed ourselves as to the present conditions. It was recently presented before the Honolulu Ministerial Union. A large amount of ignorance was admitted by many of the members. It was felt to be a matter that we should know about, and a committee was appointed to investigate and report, of which committee I was a member.

A full report was made at the last meeting of the Union, and unanimous action was taken requesting the enforcement of the laws in this matter. That action has also been presented in writing to you through Mr. Taylor. A request has also been presented to you by the Committee of Law Enforcement of the Civic Federation. This shows in connection with the petition presented to you, a large amount of public opinion on the side of the enforcement of law, however difficult the matter may be. We know that you entered your present position with the intention of enforcing this law, and that certain persons advised you not to do so. Perhaps we should have been more active at that time, and if we had fully understood conditions then, we should have been.

We admit frankly that opinions differ. As a friend said to us yesterday, "Mr. Thwing, I know you mean well, but I think you are up the wrong tree." I would suggest that those who do not believe in these laws might well send in the following petition: To C. P. Lauka, Sheriff of Oahu, Honolulu:—We the undersigned, residents of Honolulu, respectfully request that you do not enforce the laws as to present conditions, etc. It would certainly let us know what their honest opinions are. I am glad that you are going to give this matter a careful study, and consider it of sufficient importance to give it your immediate attention. I trust also that when you see how strong is a certain amount of public opinion, that you will earnestly and faithfully enforce these laws; not only in this one locality, but, as the Bishop of Honolulu, the Rt. Rev. Henry B. Restarick, has well said, "in all other places" in Honolulu and Oahu. It is a big and difficult work, we know, but I am sure there are many public-minded citizens who will aid you in every way you may suggest.

You know also, as do many others, that the United States law, recently before the Senate, known as the "Edmunds Act," bears on this matter.

A request, signed by a number of prominent men of this city, for the enforcement of this law, has been presented to Hon. R. W. Breckons, and by him has been sent on to Washington. The following letter has also been sent to the Attorney General of the United States. However, with good and able local officials, and with present Territorial laws quite sufficient, we feel, and hope, that this matter can be settled here. We do not wish unless necessary to call on Uncle Sam to do our housecleaning.

Trusting that you will at once carefully look into this subject, and act in conformity to the laws of this Territory, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

EDWARD W. THWING.

P.S.—As to the petition presented to you yesterday, no attempt was made to secure a general canvass, but enough names only were secured to show that there was a strong opinion in favor of Law Enforcement. I may say also that of those spoken to on the matter, not more than a dozen declined to sign. Even some of these declared themselves in favor of the enforcement of these laws, but did not care to sign such a paper.

A HORSE! A HORSE!

Theodore Richards called on the Governor this morning. He had the advertising pamphlet of a local brewery in his hand, but whether he wished to present this to His Excellency and enter therewith his protest against the dissemination of the literature as well as of the beverage, he did not state.

Albert Trask, it is announced by the Department of Public Works, has completed his contract for the Makiki road. This will permit travel to Tantalus from Makiki valley instead of the travelers being obliged to go around by Punchbowl, as heretofore.

Des Moines recently held its first primary election under the commission plan of government. Thirteen thousand votes were cast.

Remember that the Garbage Department has promised to cart away the refuse when you clean up your sidewalk. Call up the department when your part of the work is done.

Baseball Tomorrow For Championship Of Second Series

A meeting was held at the Government stables last night at 7:30 by Col. Sam Johnson, president of the Atkinson Baseball League.

The purpose of the meeting was to arrange for the last championship game, which takes place between the Honolulu Police and Ocean Views; the Police won the championship of the first series and the Ocean Views the second.

Chas. Hustace Jr. was present at the meeting and granted the use of the band for the occasion. The beautiful cup presented by Mr. Hustace to the team winning the championship will be on exhibition at E. O. Hall & Son's store.

The second game of the three out of five between Company F, N. G. H., and the Twentieth Infantry of Camp Shafter for a cup presented by one of the officers of the National Guard will also be played.

The line-up of the teams in the championship game at 1:30 p. m. will be as follows:

Honolulu Police—Pedro, p; Bateman, c; B. Parker, 1b; H. Kaal, 2b; Kaula, 3b; Arla, lf; Leandru, cf; Makani, rf. Substitutes—En Sing, Paha.

Ocean Views—Kaapa, p; Martin, c; Smith, 1b; Kahalewai, 2b; Bailey, 3b; Kaowai, ss; Arla, lf; Leandru, cf; Makani, rf. Substitutes—En Sing, Paha.

For the second game the teams will face each other thus:

Co. F, N. G. H.—Kaai-Burns, p; Souza-Kampa, c; N. Jackson, 1b; Bailey, 2b; C. Makani, 3b; Kaowai, ss; Cockett, lf; S. Jackson, cf; Paha, rf. Substitutes—J. Stone, W. Lee.

20th Infantry—Bateman, p-ss; Oakley, c; Valiner, 1b; Ramsey, 2b; Bird, 3b; Moran, ss-p; Collins, lf; Bradetter, cf; Truant, rf.

TAYLOR TO SEE

suggest that the Fleet assist the force in preserving order in the city by having provost guards from the ships patrol the streets. It also intends to make an arrangement similar to that made when the "Big Four" squadron called here, namely: that the master-at-arms from each vessel call at the police station every morning to ascertain the names of the sailors who are in custody, in order that they may not be posted as stragglers, in which case they lose a certain part of their pay and some of their privileges. It is pretty hard on a sailor to be posted as a straggler when he is prevented by the police from getting back to his ship on time, and the police recognize this fact. As a matter of fact, the police intend to be as lenient to the sailors as possible in this as well as in other matters.

The police expect that a great deal of good can be accomplished by the arbitration committee which will be appointed by the executive committee of the Fleet Reception Committee, the duty of which it will be to settle disputes between the sailors and citizens without the interference of the courts wherever this is possible.

"Do you expect to get anything out of your investment?"
"Well," answered the man who is pretty well discouraged, "if the price of paper keeps on going up the stock certificates ought to be worth something."—Washington Star.

Two Fights At Fort Shafter This Month

Interest in the fighting game has been revived of late around here by the fast bouts pulled off by the soldier lads from Fort Shafter, and they are not going to let it die out, either. A couple of mills are billed for the end of this month, somewhere around pay-day, and they promise to be the best exhibitions that have been pulled off here since the olden days.

There will be two scraps, the first and preliminary mix-up being between Pool and Murphy, two fast little fist-handlers, and the main event will be a ten-round melee between a chap by the name of Bird and the champion of "G" Company, who is a "dark horse" as yet, his name not having been given out.

The date for the fights have not been set yet, but they will be the 15th or 20th. The prize will meet in the arena at the army post and the general admission will be one simoleon.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

There was great excitement on the street this morning when the report came out that the trans-Pacific Yacht had become straggled and slipped into the water of her own accord. Captain Alec Lyle had moved the slim vessel ten feet nearer the water as a test, and also so that the launching this evening at high tide would be facilitated. Someone had a pipe dream and thought the boat had kept on going.

Those soldier lads have certainly the right dope on when to hold a pugilistic contest. "Pay-day"—that sounds like there is some rivalry between the different companies. At least the fight fans of Uncle Sam know there is going to be some of the liveliest going ever seen in Honolulu or the Hawaiian Islands.

GOLF TOURNEY OFF

The unique golf tourney which was scheduled to come off tomorrow at the Oahu County Club, has been called off because of the rain that has been falling in the valley the last day or so. It is not often that Phylus interferes with sporting events in this land of sunshine, but those in charge of the match thought it better to wait until a more auspicious occasion.

Sir Edgar Vincent, formerly financial adviser of the Khedive of Egypt, who has just completed a tour of the United States, says the panic has done good.

ORPHAN CHILDREN ALL DISTRIBUTED

Part From Their Guardian, Miss Alice Beard, With Tears.

"Parting is sad; but there is no place like home." This was the general statement made by the sympathizing people who assembled at Dr. McGrew's green cottage to see the orphan, who came down with Miss Beard in the Mauna Loa yesterday. Miss Beard was making necessary arrangements for her dear ones, assigning them to many tender-hearted ladies who went to the cottage to receive the young ones and take them to their homes. The children were ready to follow the advice of their guardian, Miss Beard and many of them were sent to private homes in this city.

Treasurer Trent received a Japanese girl, Mrs. Nakulua a boy whose name is Carl; he will hereafter be known by the name of Carl Nakulua. Mrs. W. G. Hall received a girl called Miyu. Mrs. W. A. Ramsey secured Imperia Saldouchi. Mrs. Dr. McClennan was given Lily Hapu. The Salvation Army people have Fanny Hapu, Louis Saldouchi, Virginia and George. Mrs. Rider took the four Halverson children until a steamer leaves for San Francisco, when they will be sent to their parents. A Hawaiian boy named Wm. Hapu was sent to Mrs. Joseph Kellikawa, his sister, Jimmie and Tommy Sanders have gone to live with their sister, Mrs. Rosenberg got a Japanese child, named Sasa Hasegawa. Mrs. Huffman was given Maria Kimball, a bright little girl. Miriam, Rosa and John Hanamall have gone with their aunt, Mrs. Reis. Mrs. Lindley got Otake Nishimura, a Japanese, and Arnold Rosera, and a girl went to a Portuguese lady.

Katherine and Emma Taylor have already gone to Seattle to their parents, and Esther and Godfrey will be claimed by their father in the near future.

It was a pitiful sight to see the little ones leaving their beloved guardian Miss Beard, but under the circumstances they had to go, and they went away with tears.

FAITHFUL DOGS BY MASTER'S BODY

Kaanaana, a Hawaiian fisherman living at Iwilei, died this morning while fishing from the mud-flats makai of Iwilei. He was seen going from his home early this morning, and a few hours later his dead body was found lying face down in the mud by a woman named Kikikina. His two faithful dogs were sitting on the body, close to which stood a small tin containing the deceased's catch of fish. The body was taken to the morgue, where Dr. McDonald held an autopsy, as a result of which he stated that death was caused by heart failure. Kaanaana was about sixty years of age. He is said to have a son in Hilo.

PROMINENT JAPANESE OF HAWAII

DR. I. KATSUKI

Dr. I. Katsuki is one of the leading Japanese physicians of the islands. He graduated from the Medical Department of the University of California in 1896 and is undoubtedly the best English scholar among the Japanese residents in Hawaii. He has many letters of recommendation as to his ability and honesty from various professors and men of note. On August 23d, 1899, Dr. Katsuki had the honor of being appointed assistant to the chair of medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco. He has testimonials from U. S. Beverly Cole, M. D., President of the Faculty of the Medical Department of the University of California.

When Dr. Katsuki was 18 years of age, he went to San Francisco and entered the High School, graduating in 1888.

After graduation he returned to Japan and taught English in the Osaka English School for five years. Resigning that position, he returned to San Francisco to continue his studies. While there he was made a special correspondent on sanitation of the San Francisco Board of Health on January 19, 1900. He was a member of the San Francisco County Medical Society and is now a member of the Territorial and American Medical Associations. During his vacation trip to Japan last year he was licensed by the Japanese Government to practice medicine throughout the Empire of Japan. At the annual meeting of the Territorial Medical Association last year, Dr. Katsuki read an able paper on "The Method of Handling Plague in Japan." It covered many modern methods of handling that deadly and was full of interesting medical information. Dr. Katsuki was born in the City of Kanazawa, Province of Kaga, Japan. He is a descendant of the Samurai and enjoys one of the largest practices in the islands. Among his schoolmates while in Japan were Baron Hayashi and Mr. Matsui, who are both high Government officials.

THOUGHTFUL MAN.

Mr. Stubb (reading)—"Maria, here is an account of a man who jumped off a high building with an open umbrella."
Mrs. Stubb—"Gracious! How thoughtful of him to take his umbrella along!"
"It is easier to be good than great," remarked the moralizer.
"Yes," rejoined the democrat; "One has less opposition."

SOCIALIST TO TOP OF CROWN

"Baldwin is a sort of socialist, isn't he?"
"Yes, but not one of the ordinary kind. His views are decidedly original."
"Ah, then, he's not one of those cranks who want all the money called in and divided equally?"
"No; all the hair."—Boston Transcript.
